

La Escucha Errante 2015

Encuentros de Investigación, Creación sonora y Electroacústica

JAK EUN JIB

bio of the players

João Neves Born in 1990, lives and works in Porto. His work explores the connection between the music field and photography. Studied music theory and performance in Violin and Double Bass; Erasmus scholarship at the Estonian Academy of Arts, lived in Tallinn from 2011 to 2013; Currently finishing his degree in Visual Arts/Multimedia at Faculdade de Belas Artes da Universidade do Porto.

Tiago Araújo Born in 1991 in Porto, Portugal. Studied Fine Arts - Multimedia branch at the Faculty of Fine Arts of the Porto University. He has also been in an exchange year from the Erasmus program between 2012/2013 in Sheffield Hallam University (Sheffield, UK) where he studied Games Design. He currently works as a freelance Illustrator and Comic-Book author, having participated in various international exhibitions and comics anthologies. Right now, He is taking a Masters degree in Animation and Illustration and directing a short animation film for social and political intervention. He has interest in areas like Illustration, Comics, Animation, Fine Arts, Games Design, Drama and Performance Art.

Ana Romão Born in 1992, Aveiro, Portugal. Has lived and studied in Aveiro until she went to college in Coimbra, to study Design and Multimedia. There, she deepened her knowledge in web and graphic design. However, she started developing a great interest in audiovisual communication, and that was when she decided to continue her studies with the Master in Image Design, at the Faculty of Fine Arts of the University of Porto. During this master, she has been able to explore all the ways of communicating an idea, such as photography, experimental and documentary video, editorial design, and also sound design. Right now she is based in Porto, where she is finishing her master's degree and doing an internship in a video mapping and interactive installations collective called "Sinergias".

